Dedication

June 1970

Dear Mr. Pais,

The Class of 1970 salutes you Mr. Pais, for the many hours, days, and years of unselfish devotion that you have so generously given to your students. But above all, we wish to thank you for the warmth, the feeling and the understanding that we feel are a part of learning with you.

Affectionately,
The Class of 1970

Round like a circle in a spiral, like a wheel within a wheel,

Never ending or beginning on an ever spinning wheel

Like a door that keeps revolving in a half forgotten dream

Like a clock whose hands are sweeping past the minutes of its face

And the world is like an apple whirling silently in space

Half remembered faces but to whom do they belong?

As the images unwind . . .

*Like the circles that you find

An aerial photograph of a town, likely Liverpool, showing a river (the Mersey) winding through the center. The town is densely packed with buildings, mostly residential, with a mix of red and grey roofs. A large church with a prominent spire is visible on the left side. The surrounding areas are heavily wooded with green trees. The overall scene is a high-angle, wide-area shot of a coastal town.

"There are places I'll remember,
All my life though some have changed.
Some forever not for better
Some have gone and some remain.
All these places had their moments,
With lovers and friends I still recall.
Some are dead and some are living,
In my life I've loved them all."
